Excerpt of pertinent information:

Letter from Grigore Niculescu-Buzesti to General Radescu & others re establishment of Rumanian Council of Democratic Parties:

. . .The Council of Political Parties has arrived at the conclusion that the international situation indicates a need for the formation of a formal National Rumanian Committee. . .

In the letter to Gen. RADESCU, the following was inserted between the last and next to last paragraphs:

"I beg to add that the political parties, if you are in agreement, would be very happy if they could present your name to His Majesty the King as President of the National Committee."

This is all the pertinent information on the subject himself in this document.
